Textbook: Essential Calculus: Early Transcendentals, second edition, by James Stewart (Cengage Learning) and a WebAssign access code for submitting on-line homework.

Exams: There are three in-class exams, each worth 20% of your grade, given during lecture on Wednesday 2/10, Wednesday 3/9, Wednesday 4/13. The final exam is on Monday 5/9, it is comprehensive, and it is worth 20% of your grade. There are no make-up semester exams, and the final exam will not be given at any other time. To receive credit, you will have to show all details of your work on the exams and quizzes.

Quizzes: Quizzes will be given every week during recitation and will account for 10% of your grade. There will be no make-up quizzes, but the lowest quiz score will be dropped.

Homework & WebAssign: You will need to create your WebAssign account at <http://www.webassign.net> in order to submit your on-line homework. You will “self enroll” into this section of MAT295 by using the following class key: syr 5732 7716 You should set up your account using your SU username and SU email address. Please do this today! The on-line homework is worth 10% of your grade. The due dates and the assigned homework problems will be announced on Blackboard. Late homework will not be accepted.

Course Policies: Attendance is required. Students are responsible for all the announcements made in class (about exams, assignments, quizzes, due dates, changes of schedule, etc). If you miss a class, you are responsible for obtaining notes for that class from a student who attended. No cell phones, pagers, laptops are allowed during the lectures. Calculator are not allowed on quizzes or exams. There will be no make-up quizzes or exams, even in the case of an emergency.
